Match background

Dortmund missed the chance to make sure of progress from Group A last time out, and now take on a Club Brugge side who revived their own hopes with a long-awaited success on matchday four.

- Dortmund substitute Christian Puljišić scored the only goal five minutes from time in the teams' matchday one contest, setting Dortmund on their way to wins in each of their first three games, and extending Club Brugge's run of UEFA Champions League defeats. That was ended at eight by a matchday three draw at home to Monaco – and a 4-0 victory away to the same opponents in their most recent game has left the Belgian side well placed to claim third place, and with an outside chance of catching the top two.
- Dortmund will be through with a draw and will clinch first place if they win and Atlético Madrid, who are level with the German club on nine points, lose at home to bottom side Monaco. Club Brugge must win to stay in contention for a top-two finish, and will make sure of third place if they match or better Monaco's result.

Previous meetings

- Before this season, the teams had each won two of their four matches, all at home – but Club Brugge emerged victorious in both ties, both in dramatic circumstances.
- In the 2003/04 UEFA Champions League third qualifying round, each side won the home leg 2-1, sending the tie into a penalty shoot-out in Dortmund. Club Brugge emerged 4-2 victors and went on to the group stage, although they failed to progress further.
- The sides' first tie was particularly remarkable, Dortmund seizing control of their meeting in the 1986/87 UEFA Cup third round with a 3-0 first-leg success in West Germany – only for Club Brugge to score three times themselves in the Belgium return to force extra time. Their goals from Franky Van der Elst and Leo Van der Elst (no relation), the latter completing his hat-trick, sealed a spectacular comeback.

Form guide

Dortmund

- Having opened the section with the win at Club Brugge, Lucien Favre's side were 3-0 home victors against Monaco on matchday two. They then dismantled Atlético 4-0 in Germany – matching the margin of their biggest home UEFA Champions League victory – only to go down 2-0 in Spain in the reverse fixture.
- Before this season, Dortmund had won only one of their last 11 UEFA Champions League fixtures (D3 L7); they had won three in a row, their best run since autumn 2016, before the loss at Atlético.
- Fourth in last season's Bundesliga, the German club are in the group stage for the third season running, and the seventh time in eight years – in 2017/18 they picked up only two points from their six fixtures. They went on to reach the UEFA Europa League round of 16, losing to Salzburg.
- The German club picked up only one point at home in last season's group stage, and were without a win in four UEFA Champions League matches in Dortmund (D1 L3) before beating Monaco.
- The 3-2 home win against Atalanta in the UEFA Europa League round of 32 first leg was Dortmund's only European victory last season; they have now won three of their last eight European home matches (D1 L4), including both of the last two.
- This is only the second time Dortmund have been drawn with a Belgian club in a UEFA Champions League section; they took four points off Anderlecht in 2014/15 (3-0 away, 1-1 home).

Club Brugge

- Beaten at home by Dortmund on matchday one, Club Brugge then went down 3-1 at Atlético to extend their run of defeats in the UEFA Champions League, group stage to final, to eight in a row – four short of the competition record held by another Belgian club, Anderlecht – before it was ended by the home draw against Monaco. The 4-0 win away to the Ligue 1 side ended a 13-year, 13-game sequence without a victory in the UEFA Champions League, qualifying included.
- The Belgian side had drawn two and lost 11 of their last 13 games in the competition prior to matchday four. Group stage to final, Club Brugge's previous UEFA Champions League win was a 3-2 home defeat of Rapid Wien in November 2005; their winless run until the victory against Monaco was D2 L9. They have won only three of their last 16 fixtures in the UEFA Champions League proper (D2 L11).
- The Monaco match on matchday three was the first time Club Brugge had picked up a point in the group stage since a 1-1 draw against Bayern München on 7 December 2005.
- Belgian champions for the 15th time in 2017/18, this is Club Brugge's second group campaign in three seasons, and their sixth overall. Before 2016/17 – when they lost every game to finish bottom of a group including Leicester, Porto and København – their previous participation had come in 2005/06.

- The Bruges club have won only one of their last ten fixtures against German clubs, home and away (D2 L7) – that 2003 defeat of Dortmund. They have never won in Germany, where their record is D3 L9, losing their last four games there.
- Runners-up to Liverpool in 1978, Club Brugge remain the only team from Belgium to have reached a European Cup final.

Head coach

Lucien Favre

Date of birth: 2 November 1957

Nationality: Swiss

Playing career: Oulens, Lausanne, Neuchâtel Xamax, Servette (twice), Toulouse

Coaching career: Echallens (youth), Echallens, Yverdon-Sport, Servette, Zürich, Hertha Berlin, Borussia Mönchengladbach, Nice, Borussia Dortmund

- Capped 24 times by Switzerland, Favre was a playmaker during his playing days, with his career blighted by a persistent knee injury. Nevertheless, he won the 1985 Swiss league with Servette, two years after being voted Footballer of the Year.
- During his first stint as a coach he guided Echallens into the second tier for the first time in their history, before winning promotion to the top flight at his new club Yverdon. In 2001 he won the Swiss Cup with Servette, also guiding the club to the UEFA Cup fourth round, and joined Zürich in spring 2003, winning the Swiss Cup (2005) as well as back-to-back league titles in 2006 and 2007, being voted Swiss coach of the year two years running.
- In summer 2007, he left for Germany to join Hertha, unexpectedly guiding the capital side to fourth place in 2008/09. He was voted coach of the year in Germany after that term, but left his post in September.
- Took over at Gladbach in February 2011 and guided them to safety via the relegation play-offs before finishing fourth the next season to return the club to Europe after 16 years. In 2014/15, a third-placed finish in the Bundesliga earned Gladbach a UEFA Champions League group stage place and Favre Germany's coach of the year award for a second time.
- Resigned in September 2015 and took over at French side Nice the following May, overseeing a third-placed finish in 2016/17. Returned to Germany to take charge of Dortmund in May 2018.

Ivan Leko

Date of birth: 7 February 1978

Nationality: Croatian

Playing career: Hajduk Split (twice), Trogir (loan), Málaga, Club Brugge, Germinal Beerschot (loan), Lokeren

Coaching career: OH Leuven, PAOK (assistant), Sint-Truiden, Club Brugge

- Launched his career with home-town club Hajduk in 1996 as a midfielder who could play on the left or in the centre, and scored 30 goals at a rate of almost one every four games over five seasons in the Croatian First Division, winning the domestic cup in 1999/2000 and claiming the league title in his final year at the club.
- Joined Málaga in summer 2001 and, although he never repeated his prolific scoring rate in Spain, quickly became an important member of the side. In four seasons Leko played over 100 Liga and UEFA Cup games, helping the side win a UEFA Intertoto Cup in 2002.
- Returned to Hajduk on loan halfway through 2004/05, scoring three goals in 14 games in another Croatian championship success, before signing for Club Brugge. Leko, who won 13 caps for Croatia and was a non-playing squad member at the 2006 FIFA World Cup, made an immediate impact in Belgium, scoring 12 minutes into his debut against Excelsior Mouscron and quickly setting up Croatia team-mate Boško Balaban for a second.
- His time in Bruges brought 21 league goals over three and a half years, and the 2006/07 Belgian Cup, before he joined Germinal Beerschot in January 2009. Moved on to Lokeren 12 months later, winning another cup in 2011/12 before hanging up his boots in February 2014 to become coach at OH Leuven.
- Unable to prevent relegation from the top flight, Leko went on to have spells at PAOK as an assistant coach to compatriot Igor Tudor and Sint-Truiden in 2016/17 before taking over from Michel Preud'homme at former side Club Brugge in summer 2017. The Blue-Blacks led the table throughout the season, lifting the title with a game to spare in the championship play-offs, with Leko named Belgium's coach of the year.
