Head to Head
None
On a high after their last-minute winner against Germany, the Netherlands play the second game of their finals campaign at the Teddy Stadium in Jerusalem with a first ever UEFA European Under-21 Championship meeting against Russia.

• In the first round of matches in Group B, the Netherlands flew into a two-goal lead against Germany, but were pegged back in the second half by the 2009 champions. However, Leroy Fer's 90th-minute header gave them all three points. There was also a late goal in Russia's opening game, though it went against Nikolai Pisarev's men, as they went down 1-0 against defending champions Spain.

Previous meetings
• Although they have never played in a competitive U21 fixture, the countries did meet in a friendly in Groningen on 6 February 2007. The Netherlands ran out 3-0 winners thanks to two goals from Otman Bakkal (23, 27) and another from Maceo Rigters (62).

• The teams at the Euroborg were:
  Netherlands: Waterman, Van Buuren, Vlaar (Pieters 82), Kruiswijk (Schilder 46), Jong-A-Pin, Maduro (Koenders 46), Jenner, Aissati, McDonald (Rigters 46), Bakkal (Bruins 70), De Ridder (Medunjanin 70).
  Russia: Khomich, Grigoryev, Shishkin, Taranov, Kontsedalov, D Kombarov (Mamaev 71), Kochubei (Starkov 22; Nagumanov 46), Yarkin, Rodenkov, Ryazantsev, Lutsenko (Dzyuba 77).

• The Soviet Union were 3-1 winners on aggregate against the Netherlands in the 1976 U23 competition, the forerunner of the European U21 Championship. A 3-0 victory in the first match in Moscow was the foundation for the success despite a 1-0 second-leg reverse in Kerkrade. The USSR went on to beat Hungary 3-2 in the two-legged final.

Match background
• The Netherlands are in the finals for the first time since 2007, when they claimed a second successive title on home soil with a 4-1 final defeat of Serbia in Groningen. They had lifted the trophy for the first time with a 3-0 defeat of Ukraine in Portugal 12 months previously.

• The Jong Oranje's only previous appearances in the final tournament came in 1998, when they lost to Norway in the third-place play-off, and 2000, when they failed to survive the group stage. They were also semi-finalists in 1988 and reached the last eight four years later.

• This is Russia's first finals appearance as an independent nation under the current format. They reached the quarter-finals in 1994 and 1998 and were knocked out in the play-offs in 2000, 2006 and 2007.

• As part of the Soviet Union, they were European champions in 1980 and 1990.

Team ties
• Netherlands coach Cor Pot was assistant to Dick Advocaat at FC Zenit Saint Petersburg between 2006 and 2009, when he took charge of the Jong Oranje. Maksim Kanunnikov was in Zenit's reserve side at the time.

• Fedor Smolov – Russia's top scorer in qualifying with seven goals – spent 2010/11 on loan at Feyenoord from FC Dinamo Moskva, although he failed to find the net in 11 Eredivisie appearances. His team-mates in Rotterdam included Wijnaldum, Fer, Kelvin Leerdam, Stefan de Vrij and Bruno Martins Indi.

• Oleg Shatov and Smolov scored the first-leg goals as FC Anji Makhachkala won 2-0 against Marco van Ginkel's Vitesse in the UEFA Europa League third qualifying round on 2 August 2012. The trio all also played in the second leg, another 2-0 Anji success.

• Shatov and Smolov then helped Anji eliminate Adam Maher's AZ Alkmaar 6-0 on aggregate in the next round.

• Bram Nuytinck was in the RSC Anderlecht side that lost 1-0 to Zenit in the UEFA Champions League group stage on 24 October before a 1-0 win on 6 November. Kanunnikov was a second-half substitute in Brussels.

• Ola John came on as a late substitute and faced Sergei Bryzgalov when FC Spartak Moskva were 2-1 winners against SL Benfica in the UEFA Champions League group stage on 23 October 2012. John then started the return match in Lisbon on 7 November, while Bryzgalov remained on the bench.

Netherlands news
• Scorer of a superb goal against Germany, Wijnaldum had to withdraw midway through the second half because of a back injury. He has undergone treatment by the Dutch medical team, though, and was present at training on Friday evening.
• On Friday morning, the whole squad had a gentle warm down session at the hotel before enjoying a short bit of recreational time on the beach.

• Bar Wijnaldum, those players who started against Germany all remained at the hotel during the evening training session and watched the senior team’s match against Indonesia.

• Tomorrow, the squad are having lunch and then travelling to Jerusalem to spend one night there before the match. They will return to Tel Aviv directly after the match.

Russia news
• A reoccurrence of a knee injury has ended Ivan Knyazev’s participation at the finals. The FC Torpedo Moskva defender broke down in the last training session before the Spain game, allowing Russia to call up a late replacement.

• Pisarev opted to bring in FC Yenisey Krasnoyarsk’s Aleksei Nikitin, who was in training with the squad right until the start of the tournament.

• The players were given the morning off after the loss to Spain. There were no excursions or group activities, with many squad members spending the time with their families or, in the instance of Pavel Yakovlev, going to the beach and taking a dip in the Mediterranean.

• The senior team had a big FIFA World Cup qualifier in Portugal on Friday night and had U21 players Alan Dzagoev and Smolov on their bench. They lost 1-0 with Smolov coming on in the second half and the duo will join up with Pisarev’s squad on Saturday.

Head coach

Netherlands: Cor Pot
Date of birth: 8 June 1951
Nationality: Dutch
Playing career: Sparta Rotterdam, MVV Maastricht, HFC Haarlem, SBV Excelsior, Fortuna Vlaardingen
Coaching career: SVB Excelsior (assistant), Feyenoord (assistant and youth), VV Wilhemus, RBC Roosendaal, NAC Breda, SBV Excelsior, Al-Masry Club, Telstar (assistant), 1. FC Dynamo Dresden (technical director), Netherlands (youth coach, head scout), FC Zenit St Petersburg (assistant), Netherlands Under-21s

- A striker, Pot came through the Sparta Rotterdam youth academy and made his professional debut in 1970/71 at the club. He continued his career with MVV, Haarlem, Excelsior and Vlaardingen before hanging up his boots in 1981.
- After assistant coach roles with Excelsior and Feyenoord, he became head coach at amateur side VV Wilhelmus before moving on to Roosendaal, Breda, Excelsior, and Egyptian side Al-Masry. He also held the post of technical director at German club Dynamo Dresden.
- In 2002, Pot joined the Royal Netherlands Football Association (KNVB), becoming youth coach and head scout, while also succeeding Wim Koevermans as U21 coach for the 2003/04 season. Pot's tenure laid the foundations for Foppe de Haan's successful Jong Oranje, who won back-to-back European titles in 2006 and 2007.
- He moved to Zenit as assistant to Dick Advocaat in 2006, winning the Russian championship, the UEFA Cup and UEFA Super Cup there before returning to the KNVB in 2009. After succeeding De Haan, he has now led the Jong Oranje to their first final tournament since winning it in 2007.

Russia: Nikolai Pisarev
Date of birth: 23 November 1968
Nationality: Russian
Playing career: FC Torpedo Moskva, FC Winterthur, FC Spartak Moskva (three times), CP Mérida, FC St Pauli, FC Dinamo Moskva, FC Torpedo-ZIL, Russia, Russia (beach soccer)
Coaching career: FC Krasnoznamensk, PFC Krylya Sovetov Samara, FC Uralan Elista, Russia (beach soccer), Russia Under-21

- Pisarev came through the youth ranks at Torpedo Moskva and represented the club during the late 1980s. A move to Winterthur followed before a spell with Spartak Moskva where he won three Russian league titles. He returned to Spartak later in his career, winning three more championships, while also playing in Spain and Germany plus at other Moscow clubs.
- Representing the USSR, Pisarev won the 1990 UEFA European Under-21 Championship, though he was a fringe player in that squad. He won three caps for the senior Russia side, all of them in 1995, and scored his only goal in a 3-0 EURO '96 qualifying win against Faroe Islands on 6 May 1995.
- After hanging his boots in 2001, Pisarev plied his trade as an assistant coach at Krasnoznamensk, Krylya Sovetov Samara and Uralan Elista. His first spell as a head coach came with Russia's beach soccer team (2005–10) before being appointed Russian Football Union (RFS) sporting director in May 2010. He started to combine that position with the job of U21 coach in September of that year and guided Russia to the finals for the first time in 14 years.

- French referee Antony Gautier has enjoyed a rapid rise since making his UEFA debut in the 2007/08.
- Gautier was promoted to take charge of Ligue 1 matches aged 29 in 2007, one of the youngest match officials to achieve that honour; has since become one of his country's most respected referees and was the man in the middle for the 2011 Coupe de Ligue final between Olympique de Marseille and Montpellier Hérault SC.
- The 2007/08 campaign also marked his first taste of international competition as he was fourth official at two UEFA Cup games; went on to fill the same role in UEFA Champions League matches, plus the UEFA EURO 2008 qualifier between Armenia and Kazakhstan in November 2007, in the years that followed.
- Awarded his FIFA badge in January 2010, Gautier’s first continental engagements as a referee followed with two UEFA European Under-19 Championship elite round games; also took charge of two UEFA EURO 2012 qualifiers.
- Worked as a referee in the UEFA Europa League from 2010/11 onwards and, having been an additional assistant referee in five UEFA Champions League games that campaign, made his group stage bow as a referee on matchday three of the 2011/12 competition.

Competition information

• Eligibility: Players are eligible to play in the competition if they were born on or after 1 January 1990.

• Qualifying: Qualifying began on 25 March 2011 and ran until 16 October 2012 with a group stage followed by play-offs to determine which seven nations joined Israel, who qualified automatically as hosts, at the eight-team final tournament.

• How the 2013 finals works: The group stage is based on a league system (three points for a win, one for a draw, none for a defeat) to produce four semi-finalists.

If two or more teams are equal on points on completion of all the matches in their group, the following criteria will be used to determine the rankings in the order given:

a) number of points obtained in the matches between the teams in question;
b) goal difference in the matches between the teams in question;
c) number of goals scored in the matches between the teams in question (if more than two teams finish equal on points);
d) goal difference in all the group matches;
e) number of goals scored in all the group matches;
f) position in the coefficient ranking used for the final draw;

If two teams with the same number of points, goals scored and conceded play their last group match against each other and are still equal at the end of that match, the ranking of the two teams will be determined by penalties, provided that no other team within the group has the same number of points on completion of all group matches.

The final tournament consists of two groups of four, with the top two from each progressing to the semi-finals (A1 v B2 and B2 v A1) where it becomes a knockout competition (extra time and then penalties apply).

• Disciplinary information: Yellow cards that do not result in a suspension expire at the end of the group stage and are not carried forward to the semi-finals.

• Top scorer: adidas will award a golden boot to the leading scorer at the tournament after the final, along with silver and bronze boots for the players finishing second and third in the scoring chart.

• Official ball: The official match ball of the tournament was unveiled during the finals draw in November. Made by adidas, it features the blue and white colours of hosts Israel and its design has the same thermally bonded triangular patterns as the adidas Tango 12, match ball of UEFA EURO 2012.

• Official song: Former player Eyal Golan collaborated with some of Israel's best musicians to help produce Always My Number 1, the official tune of the finals. The 42-year-old sung it at the opening ceremony at the Netanya Municipal Stadium on 5 June; it will be subsequently played at every match.

• Match officials: Six referees were chosen to officiate in Israel: Ivan Bebek (Croatia), Antony Gautier (France), Paweł Gil (Poland), Ovidiu Hățegan (Romania), Matej Jug (Slovenia) and Serhiy Boiko (Ukraine). Also, for the first time at an Under-21 finals, there will be a team of additional assistant referees.

• Trophy: The original trophy, which is used for the official presentation ceremony at the final, remains in UEFA's keeping at all times. A full-size replica is awarded to the winning association. Each association that competes in the final tournament will receive a commemorative plaque.

• Medals: 35 gold medals are presented to the winning team and 35 silver medals to the runners-up. The teams beaten in the semi-finals will each receive 35 bronze medals.

• Ambassadors: Avi Nimni and Eli Ohana are the tournament's two ambassadors. With over 130 caps between them, they are two of Israel's foremost former players. Nimni is also Maccabi Tel-Aviv FC's all-time leading goalscorer while Ohana won the European Cup Winners' Cup in 1988 with KV Mechelen.

• UEFA.com: A team of reporters in Israel will provide unrivalled coverage in ten languages, with live coverage, player interviews, full statistics and video. There is also full social media coverage including dedicated Twitter (@UEFAUnder21) and Facebook (https://www.facebook.com/under21) pages.

• Next finals: The Czech Republic were selected as hosts of the 2015 UEFA European Under-21 Championship finals at the UEFA Executive Committee meeting on 20 March 2012. Players are eligible to play in the competition if they were born on or after 1 January 1992.
